

As the infographic below illustrates, iMiller Public Relations’ growth since 2011 is a testament to the needs of telecommunication, internet and technology companies to have a communications team that can tell their stories most effectively.

Thanks to the support of our clients, including FiberMedia (now vXchnge) and Global Capacity, our longest-standing customer, iMPR has achieved a CAGR of over 40 percent for the past two years, and today serves companies who represent more than $100 billion in collective revenue.

In the past five years, iMPR has helped to define messages and introduce game-changing telecom, data center, and internet companies throughout the world. iMPR's team of professionals experienced in shaping and defining messages, brands and delivering on strategic communication programs has not only enriched our clients, but has helped make the industry, and thus, the world a more connected place.
